Communities across Americas are coming together this year to remember and celebrate the achievements of our “Greatest Generation” on the 70th Anniversary of the end of World War II on August 14, 1945 - 2015.

The senior care giving community is encouraged to participate in events and activities that are being planned as part of a national 70th Anniversary Commemorative weekend on August 14 – 16.

- Senior living communities are inviting families, youth groups and the public to special Spirit of '45 Day open houses.
- Care givers are helping seniors record their firsthand memories of the day WWII ended, and to submit their wartime photos so they can be included in a national “Wall of Honor” and shown on giant screens in Times Square on August 14.
- Senior living communities and caregivers are helping to organize wreath laying ceremonies to honor the memory of the members of the WWII generation as part of an around the world Tribute on Sunday, August 16.

Our World War II generation is rapidly leaving us - please join in this nationwide commemoration of what they achieved for the world and ensure that their legacy will continue to inspire future generations.
